May is the height of spring beauty: the weather is perfect featuring bright sunny days and cool evenings. Join us as we explore Athens, the gateway to Greece, and the beauty of six islands. Each is unique providing a plethora of images featuring a fanciful use of color and design combined with the ancient traditions of an old Mediterranean civilization. These images will feature a unique sense of place - the sapphire blue sea, white washed buildings, intimate harbors filled with fishing boats and commerce, cobblestone streets connecting the daily life of small island villages. To finish off our days of photography, capture the sunsets which are glorious and indescribable.
